March 9, 2011 – Uniting Future Legends (UFL), official golf wear partner to the Faldo Series Asia, previewed its 2011 collection during the Gala Dinner of the fifth annual Faldo Series Asia Grand Final at Mission Hills Golf Club in Shenzhen, China.

This is the first line created by UFL's new lead designer, Ms. Tine Beez, and was based in part on input and feedback collected from golfers aged 12 to 21 who participated in Faldo Series Asia tournaments throughout 2010. UFL is the first-ever youth-inspired brand of golf wear and wholly-owned subsidiary of apparel manufacturer Alpine Creations Ltd. This collection is the second offering the brand has launched since entering the market just one year ago.
